

The Friends of the Goldstein Museum of Design
Invite you to a Collection Close-up exploring the Intersections Between Art and Fashion

Thursday, October 22nd

22 McNeal Hall
1985 Buford Avenue, St. Paul, MN

6:30–8:00 pm

Members $25, Guests $35

RSVP by October 18th to Linda, hers004@umn.edu or
612.730.6751

Dr. Jean McElvain, Goldstein Museum Assistant Curator, will speak on the power of floral patterns in apparel and accessories and Professor Roslye Ultan, Faculty MLS (Masters of Liberal Studies Program), will focus on the legacy of art into fashion in mid-20th century pop art.

Join us for a reception following the presentation with sweets from Beyond Chocolates.

The Goldstein Museum of Design featuring the exhibit Intersections: Where art meets fashion will be open until 8:30 pm.

ph: 612.624.7434 <http://goldstein.design.umn.edu>

This activity is made possible in part by a grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board, through an appropriation by the Minnesota State Legislature and a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

GOLDSTEIN
MUSEUM OF DESIGN

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA