Minneapolis, MN---The best work of the talented seniors and grad students of the College of Design will be on display April 25–May 16, 2009 in Rapson Hall on the east bank campus. The exhibition, Our Deal: Graduates Ready to Stimulate, opens on April 25. There will be a party and awards ceremony on Friday, May 15 from 6:30-8:30 pm in Rapson Hall. This annual event and awards ceremony celebrates new graduates and reflects the professional quality of work done by students of the college. The event is free and open to the public. Music and refreshments will be provided.

Our Deal: Graduates Ready to Stimulate includes work by students from all programs within the college: architecture, landscape architecture, clothing design, environmental design, graphic design, housing studies, interior design, and retail merchandising. Projects exhibited will include poster presentations of research, 3-D projects of clothing and architectural designs, and digital presentations of design process.

Our Deal: Graduates Ready to Stimulate will also feature an awards program in which monetary and other awards will be distributed by professional designers who reviewed the works in the exhibition and selected the award recipients.
