COLLECTION ACCESS FEES

Facilitating research and disseminating knowledge are central to the mission of the Goldstein Museum of Design (GMD). GMD's collection is a significant resource for students, designers, scholars, and collections and the foundation for public programs to academic, community and professional groups. The collection consists of approximately 28,000 items of design including apparel and accessories, flat textiles, decorative art, furniture, graphic design journals, and interior design archives.

Because of the number of requests we receive and our limited resources, we must charge fees for the staff time involved in fulfilling access requests and developing and presenting programs. Fees are non-refundable, but may be waived at GMD's discretion.

Researchers must make an appointment to view collection objects and submit a Collections Access Request Form noting what you are interested in viewing. Please consult with staff when formulating your research plans to assist you in planning for the most efficient use of the collection. GMD staff will pull objects from the collection for viewing in the GMD Research Center, 333 McNeal Hall.

Research Center hours are Monday – Thursday, 9am – 4pm. Contact Jean McElvain, Assistant Curator, 612.625.2737 or jmcelvai@umn.edu to make an appointment. Collections access requests will be answered in the order they have been received.
